▪ Joondalup Festival

Jeremy Manning will speak to Festival organisers to see if there are any opportunities for the Youth Advisory Council to be involved in the Festival.

▪ Extreme Expo

Jeremy Manning reported that the final preparations for Extreme Expo had been completed. Members discussed the need to continue promotion of the event and outlined some ways that the event could be promoted.

Tim Lee volunteered to ring 96FM to see if further promotion could be done through the station.

▪ National Youth Week

Jeremy Manning reported that funding of up to $1500 per Youth Advisory Council has been offered through the Office of Youth Affairs to run a youth event during National Youth Week.

Members suggested that a Dance party would be good idea to submit for funding to the Office of Youth Affairs. Members would also like to cooperate with Joondalup South Youth Advisory Council to develop an event.

Moved : Aman Pabla

Seconded: Tim Lee

CARRIED

Jeremy Manning will do the funding submission.

▪ Music project

Jeremy Manning asked for contact details of young bands in the area that may be interested in taking part in the music project

▪ Honorariums

Cheques have been received and were distributed to members.

- YAC website

Office of Youth Affairs is currently updating its website and would like to include a page on each Youth Advisory Council. Jeremy Manning will take photo at next meeting. Members discussed the information that should be included on the website. Information to be given to Jeremy Manning to be submitted to the Office of Youth Affairs.

- Mirror Park

Members discussed a variety of possible options for a basketball hardstand at Mirror Park. Jeremy Manning will get a map of the park for next meeting.

- Safer WA

Jeremy Manning outlined the concept of the Safer WA Local Committees and mentioned that youth members were invited to participate on these committees. Jeremy Manning mentioned that if members wished to take part in these committees, they would represent their community not City of Joondalup or the Youth Advisory Council.

- Visit to Parliament House

The local member for Joondalup, Mr Chris Baker MLA has invited members of the Joondalup North Youth Advisory Council for an evening tour of Parliament House. Members decided that March 28 would be the best evening for the tour.

GENERAL BUSINESS

Tim Lee asked if it would appropriate to move the next meeting to another venue. Members suggested that Hillarys Boat Harbour would be an appropriate place to meet.

Moved: Tim Lee

Seconded: Tracey Lee McDonald
